The word “waiting” for many of us invokes images of standing in line, staring at a slowly ticking clock, or sitting in a literal waiting room. I am sure we all could think of more examples but most of the time waiting is seen as a passive activity. The season of Advent is about waiting. We enter into a space of waiting for the birth of the Messiah. While this season is about waiting, the waiting we are called to is not like standing in line. We are not supposed to be passively watching the proverbial clock until the day of Christ’s birth.

Our theme for Advent this year is Dare to Imagine. We can be active in our waiting this Advent season by opening our imaginations to who God is and what God has for us. We dare to imagine more and more what God might do through us in these coming days. I pray y’all might experience deeply the presence of God this Advent season. That the Spirit of God might enchant our imaginations and inspire us toward hope and faithfulness.

*In Christ,
 Pastor Nathanael*

From the Leader Magazine - the Dare to Imagine theme:

“Dwelling in the space between the texts and our 2021 context made us long for renewed imagination in our lives and church lives. So much has been put on hold or turned upside down that we need to listen and respond to God’s presence with new ears and renewed hearts and minds. As we begin a new church year, let’s dare to imagine our path forward with God toward God’s good dream for our world. Rooted in our lives of faith and our trust in the Spirit, and arising from our engagement with the Scripture texts, this worship series dares all of us to speak aloud our laments, confessions, and hopes for coming days; to look for a new language to express our faithfulness; to engage and honor the imagination of our children; to offer sermons that call us beyond our comfort zones; and to explore new carols and melodies to loudly sing our praise to God.”

Advent 4: Dare to Imagine God’s Face!

What amazing love is this that the Godhead comes down to us in the little clan of a little people and takes on a human face? With Mary, we rejoice in God, our Savior, by actively participating in God’s leveling mercy.

Lighting of the Fourth Advent Candle

STS #15 Hope is a Candle (Verses 1, 2, 4 & 3)

Leader: We light a candle of love. And we imagine:

People: the lowly lifted, fear met with love.

Leader: We light the candle and pray for God's face to shine on us, to save us, restore us.

People: Imagine that . . . we are God's wonders, blessed wonders.

Children's Time

Confession & Assurance

Leader: We notice, O God, that when You feed people, everyone has enough.

People: We notice that in our world, when we feed people, some have more than enough, and many are still hungry.

Leader: Teach us to love.

People: We notice, O God, that in Your social, economic, racial, and gender orders, no one is greater, and no one is left behind.

Leader: We notice that in our world there are many ladders, and many are climbing.

People: Re-orientate us to Your vision of equality.

Leader: God of mercy, lower us, raise us, empty us, and fill us. Like an empty manger, we want to be ready to receive Emmanuel.

ALL: Our souls magnify the Lord, our spirits rejoice in God our Savior. God has looked with favor on our lowliness. The Mighty One has done great things for us, and Holy is God's name.
